

ONE WEEK IN, AND PPL CAN'T MAKE PAYROLL

New Yorkers Warned This Would Happen. Now it is.

Just days after PPL took control of New York's home care system, caregivers across the state are unpaid, confused, and protested.

PPL Takes Over CDPAP, Workers Facing Pay
Issues

CDPAP Workers Protest Pay Issues

Home Care Workers
Rally Outside PPL
Headquarters

Homecare Workers
Protest Over CDPAP
Transition Problems

Health department: Hundreds of thousands of personal assistants still not done with signup process in state transition

CDPAP rally outside PPL's new headquarters in Latham over missing paychecks

30,000 recipients have yet to re-enroll in home care program after fraught transition

New deadlines, old anguish part of saga for home care program in New York State

Hochul's homecare program havoc leaves workers unpaid as federal court steps in

'Glitch after glitch': Families of New Yorkers with disabilities say new CDPAP payment system is a 'mess'

Home Care Workers
Protest Missed
Paychecks

CDPAP Workers
Protesting Pay Issues

State Caregivers, Patients
Struggling With CDPAP Transition

Unpaid, Confused, Frustrated...Caregivers
Sound The Alarm

Caregivers Facing Payment Issues Amid
New CDPAP System

